Some days ago there was a fanevent to show the Sims Medieval. Some of our German friends sites took part on it. We are under "real life pressure" these days, but we would post something new next days.

Meanwhile, we suggest you to give a look at Simfans.de , SimTimes , Simprograms and Sims3Nieuws and their event's coverage.

We haven't time to publish the full article, but we are able to share with you some new screenshots : 9 are from German event, so we thank SimTimes, the latest 3 have been published today on TheSimsMedieval twitter profile
